6-8 AUGUST 2027

FANTASY & MAGIC CON WARSAW

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ATTENDANCE FANTASY & MAGIC CON 2027

TERMS & CONDITIONS

§1. General Provisions

1. These Terms and Conditions govern attendance at Fantasy & Magic Con 2027 (hereinafter the “Event”), including the rights and obligations of attendees, guests, exhibitors, programme contributors, media representatives and the Organiser.
2. The Event will take place on 6–8 August 2027 at the Institute of Creative Industries, ul. Mińska 65, 03-828 Warsaw, according to the following schedule:

- 6 August, 14:00–22:00 (CEST);
- 7 August, 10:00–22:00 (CEST);
- 8 August, 10:00–19:00 (CEST).

The exhibitor area will be open on

- 6 August, 14:00–20:00 (CEST);
- 7 August, 09:00–20:00 (CEST);
- 8 August, 09:00–18:00 (CEST).

3. Attendees holding a ticket or package granting early entry (“Early Access”) may enter the Event one hour before its standard opening time:

- 6 August 2027 – no Early Access;
- 7 August – from 09:00 (CEST);
- 8 August – from 09:00 (CEST).

4. The Event is planned as a mass event within the meaning of the applicable regulations.
5. The Event is organised by Raccoon Business Kinga Zgorzelska, a sole proprietorship trading as Raccoon Business Kinga Zgorzelska, with its registered business address at Aleje Jerozolimskie 123A, 18th floor, 02-017 Warsaw, entered in the Polish Central Register and Information on Economic Activity (CEIDG), tax identification number (NIP): 8222418750 (hereinafter the “Organiser”).
6. The purpose of the Event is to promote contemporary culture and fantasy art, particularly literature, films and television series, games, esports, cosplay and related creative, educational and community activities, and to bring together enthusiasts of these fields.
7. Entry to the Event using a convention wristband issued upon ticket purchase or exchanged for a ticket confers attendee status and signifies that the attendee has read these Terms and Conditions, accepts them in full and undertakes to comply with them.
8. These Terms and Conditions are available on the Event website, www.fanatsymagiccon.pl, and at the information desk on the Event premises.
9. The Organiser has the exclusive right to provide a binding interpretation of these Terms and Conditions.
10. Failure to comply with these Terms and Conditions may result in confiscation of the convention wristband and removal from the Event without the possibility of re-entry, as well as denial of accreditation for future events organised by the Organiser.
11. Removal from the Event for a breach of these Terms and Conditions does not entitle an attendee to a refund of the ticket price or any other expenses incurred in purchasing tickets or attending the Event.

12. The Event programme is indicative and may change, particularly with regard to times, locations, hosts, guests and individual programme sessions.
13. The Organiser does not guarantee the appearance of any particular guest, artist, contributor or host, or the delivery of every announced programme session, where cancellation or changes result from circumstances beyond the Organiser's control.
14. Changes to the event programme, cancellation of individual programme activities, or inability to participate in a particular activity (e.g. a lecture, panel discussion, or workshop) due to the limited number of places available for that activity shall not constitute grounds for a refund of the Event admission ticket price.

§2. Conditions of Attendance and Ticket Sales

1. Attendance at the Event requires the purchase of a ticket or being granted accreditation.
2. A ticket grants access to publicly accessible Event areas, including the exhibitor hall, programme rooms, stages, free-play area and outdoor attractions, as well as assistance from Convention Staff, security services and emergency medical assistance when needed.
3. Access to particular areas, rooms and programme sessions may be temporarily restricted due to maximum occupancy, safety considerations or operational requirements. Holding an Event ticket does not guarantee access to every area or programme session at the time chosen by the attendee.
4. Participation in selected programme sessions may be subject to capacity limits and additional fees. This applies in particular to autograph sessions with selected guests, photo opportunities (photo-ops), guest meetings and other Guest Experience activities.
5. Advance sales of passes for paid programme sessions will be limited and available until 31 July 2027 at 23:59 or until the available passes sell out, whichever occurs first. On-site sales during the Event will depend on availability.
6. Detailed rules governing the purchase and use of passes for paid programme sessions, particularly autograph sessions, photo-ops and guest meetings, including changes, cancellations and refunds, are set out in the separate Fantasy & Magic Con 2027 Guest Experience Pass Sales and Use Terms and Conditions, which form Appendix 1 to these Terms and Conditions.
7. Event tickets may be purchased in advance online or at the Event venue during the Event. On-site sales are subject to availability, particularly the circumstances referred to in paragraph 3.
8. Purchasing a ticket constitutes agreement to comply with these Terms and Conditions and the appendices, which form an integral part of them.
9. Online advance ticket sales begin on 15 October 2026 at 12:00.
10. Online advance ticket sales continue until 31 July 2027 at 23:59 or until tickets sell out.
11. A ticket purchased online in advance must be exchanged for a convention wristband.
12. A convention wristband permits multiple entries to and exits from the Event premises on the day or days for which it is valid.
13. The following ticket types are available for online sale (prices in PLN):

14. In accordance with §5, Junior tickets are intended for children born after 31 December 2013.
15. Tickets are non-refundable and non-exchangeable, except where the Organiser cancels the Event or makes material changes to these Terms and Conditions. Changes to the Event date, venue or safety rules are deemed material. In such cases, the attendee is entitled to a ticket refund, which will be processed within 14 days of receipt of the necessary information and made using the original payment method

§3. Admission and Attendee Identification

1. Upon entry to the Event, every attendee must present their ticket and exchange it for the mandatory convention wristband.
2. Convention wristbands may be collected on Thursday 5 August 2027, 14:00–20:00; Friday 6 August, 12:00–20:00; Saturday 7 August, 08:00–20:00; and Sunday 8 August, 08:00–16:00.
3. The convention wristband serves as proof of admission entitlement and must be worn throughout the Event. A torn or damaged wristband becomes invalid and does not permit re-entry, subject to paragraphs 4 and 5.

4. Every attendee must wear the convention wristband on their wrist. If a wristband is lost, the attendee must immediately report to the Event information desk. Replacement wristbands are issued free of charge. Anyone without a wristband will be directed by Convention Staff to the information desk to obtain a replacement and, if they refuse, will be removed from the Event by decision of the Organiser.
5. If a wristband is torn or damaged while on the Event premises, a replacement may be issued before leaving, upon presentation of the torn or damaged wristband. The new wristband must be put on in the presence of the Organiser.
6. The Organiser reserves the right to have wristbands checked by security personnel or Event staff.
7. While at the Event, attendees must, upon request by the Organiser, security personnel or Event staff, confirm their identity with a valid document bearing a photograph and date of birth.

§4. Accreditation

1. Accreditation means permission to enter the Event granted by the Organiser through the issue of a convention wristband appropriate to the accredited person's role.
2. Accreditation is available to programme contributors (including speakers, panel hosts and workshop leaders), Event guests, exhibitors (including Artist Alley artists), media representatives, Event partners, Event sponsors, persons invited by Event partners and sponsors, and persons granted accreditation under §6.
3. Applications for media accreditation may be submitted to the Organiser in accordance with the Media and Online Creators Cooperation Terms and Conditions, available at fantasymagiccon.eu/for-press/.
4. Programme contributors, Event guests and exhibitors receive accreditation automatically, which will be sent to them no later than 14 days before the Event.
5. Accreditation may be collected at the desk located outside the main Event entrance on:
   - Thursday 5 August 2027, 14:00–20:00;
   - Friday 6 August, 10:00–20:00;
   - Saturday 7 August, 08:00–20:00;
   - Sunday 8 August, 08:00–18:00.
6. A valid identity document must be presented when collecting accreditation.
7. Accreditation is personal and may not be transferred to third parties

§5. Attendance by Minors

Minors may attend the Event under the following conditions:
1. Children born after 31 December 2013 may attend the Event with a Junior ticket, except for children who qualify for free admission.
2. Children under the age of 16 may attend the Event only if they remain under the continuous, direct supervision of a parent or legal guardian, or an adult authorised by a parent or legal guardian to supervise them (hereinafter referred to as the "Supervising Adult"). Such authorisation must be given in writing and presented upon request by the Organiser or Convention Staff.
3. Minors aged 16 or 17 may attend the Event provided they carry written consent from a parent or legal guardian throughout their attendance. The consent must include the parent's or legal guardian's telephone number and a statement confirming that the person signing it has read and accepts these Terms and Conditions. A consent form is provided in Appendix 2 to these Terms and Conditions and is available on the Event website referred to in ¬ß1(8). Minors aged 16 or 17 who do not have the required written consent will not be permitted to enter the Event unless accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.
4. The Organiser reserves the right to verify attendees' ages.

5. The Child Safeguarding Standards applicable during the Event are set out in Appendix 3 to these Terms and Conditions.
6. Subject to these Terms and Conditions and the Child Safeguarding Standards referred to in point 5, the Organiser does not provide childcare or supervision for minors.
7. A parent, legal guardian or Supervising Adult (where applicable):
a) is fully responsible for the minor attending the Event, including their behaviour, movements around the venue, compliance with these Terms and Conditions and instructions issued by Convention Staff, as well as any consequences arising from inadequate supervision;
b) is liable, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, for any injury or damage caused by the minor to other persons or property, including other attendees, artists, Convention Staff, the Organiser and third parties, and undertakes to compensate for such injury or damage and cover reasonable costs arising from the minor's actions or omissions;
c) acknowledges and accepts that attending the Event involves risks typically associated with public events, including crowds, noise, lighting effects and the movement of attendees. They undertake to supervise the minor in a manner that ensures their safety, including responding promptly to instructions issued by Convention Staff or the Organiser.
8. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Organiser is not liable for incidents involving minors that result from a parent's, legal guardian's or Supervising Adult's failure to provide proper supervision. This includes minors becoming lost, wandering away from their accompanying adult, or failing to comply with these Terms and Conditions or instructions issued by Convention Staff. Nothing in this provision excludes or limits the Organiser's liability where such exclusion or limitation is prohibited by mandatory provisions of applicable law.

§6. Attendance by Persons with Disabilities

1. Carers or assistants of persons with moderate or severe disabilities are entitled to free accreditation upon presentation of an appropriate certificate, disability assessment or declaration, subject to this section and an application for accreditation in accordance with §4(1).
2. A carer or assistant of a person with a disability must be at least 18 years old on the Event's opening day. An exception applies to first-degree relatives acting as assistants who are at least 16 years old on the Event date.
3. Free accreditation for a carer or assistant is available only where the person with a disability holds a certificate confirming a moderate or severe disability, issued by a District Disability Assessment Board or another competent authority.
4. If the documents referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 are not presented, the carer or assistant must purchase a standard ticket.

§7. Safety and Conduct Rules

1. Attendees must comply with the venue regulations, particularly health and safety and fire prevention regulations, all other applicable laws and safety requirements, and instructions issued by the Organiser, technical staff, security personnel and Convention Staff.
2. Weapons (firearms and bladed weapons), pyrotechnic or explosive materials and other dangerous items that may endanger life or health, particularly those specified in Article 8(2) of the Polish Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events, may not be brought onto the Event premises.

3. Bringing or consuming alcohol, drugs, psychotropic substances or controlled substance substitutes on the Event premises is strictly prohibited. Anyone consuming or under the influence of such substances will be removed immediately without re-entry rights. §1(11) and (12) apply accordingly.
4. A designated smoking area will be provided. Smoking cigarettes or e-cigarettes outside that area is prohibited.
5. Convention Staff will be on site to help maintain safety, order and attendees' comfort. Convention Staff include security guards wearing vests and other persons acting on behalf of the Organiser wearing identification shirts bearing the Event logo.
6. Attendees should report any safety concerns, conflicts, aggression or breaches of these Terms and Conditions to Convention Staff.
7. Anyone who behaves aggressively, provocatively or confrontationally; encourages others to disrupt public order or safety; insults, humiliates or discriminates against others on the grounds of gender, race, religion, age, beliefs or any other reason; litters the Event premises; damages Event facilities or infrastructure; or refuses to undergo checks to verify their age or compliance with these Terms and Conditions will be removed from the Event without the possibility of re-entry. This applies to conduct towards other attendees, guests, programme contributors, exhibitors, Convention Staff and the Organiser. The provisions of §1(10) and (11) apply accordingly.
8. Touching, hugging, photographing or filming another attendee requires that person's express consent. Anyone engaging in harassment, stalking or violence (including sexual harassment or violence) towards other attendees will be removed immediately, and the Organiser may call the Police.
9. Convention Staff and the Organiser may ask attendees to provide identification only to: verify admission rights where there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the person lacks them; identify persons breaching these Terms and Conditions; or check whether a person is subject to an entry ban under applicable law.
10. Security personnel may inspect attendees' bags for safety purposes.
11. Security personnel and the Organiser may inspect costumes and cosplay accessories for compliance with safety requirements, including those in §9.
12. Breaches may also be reported by email to bezpieczenstwo@fantasymagiccon.pl.
13. Commercial, service, entertainment, information or promotional activities on the Event premises require the Organiser's consent.
14. Animals are not permitted on the Event premises, except appropriately identified guide dogs and assistance dogs.
15. Riding bicycles, scooters, skateboards, roller skates or other personal transport devices on the Event premises is prohibited, except mobility aids used by persons with disabilities and cases expressly approved by the Organiser.
16. Disrupting the Event programme or causing a disturbance to other attendees, guests, contributors, exhibitors, Convention Staff or the Organiser is prohibited.
17. Without the Organiser's consent, the following are prohibited on the Event premises: advertising (including vehicle-mounted advertising); political agitation, election campaigns, collecting signatures for electoral committees or political initiatives, and organised propaganda; promoting or displaying content or symbols prohibited by law or contrary to generally accepted standards of conduct; and collecting money or goods.
18. Hot food may be eaten only in designated food-service areas.
19. The Organiser is not responsible for items lost, left behind or stolen on the Event premises.
20. The Organiser does not endorse opinions expressed by attendees (including programme hosts) during the Event and accepts no responsibility for them.
21. Attendees must respect the property of the Organiser and other attendees, guests, contributors, exhibitors and Convention Staff. Attendees are financially responsible for damage they cause.

22. An first-aid station will operate on the Event premises. In the event of a threat to health or life, an attendee should immediately contact Convention Staff, security or medical personnel. Emergency care will be provided at the scene or at the designated medical assistance point. Injured or ill persons admitted to that point will be asked to present identification.
23. If, during examination, medical personnel have reasonable grounds to suspect that an injury or health impairment resulted from a criminal offence, they will notify the Organiser, who will inform the appropriate authorities.

§8. Rules for Contributors, Exhibitors, Guests and Media

1. Programme contributors (speakers, workshop leaders, competition hosts, group representatives and others) and guests are entitled to accreditation under the separate Programme Contributors Terms and Conditions.
2. Exhibitors participate under the separate Exhibitors and Artists Terms and Conditions.
3. Artist Alley artists operate under the separate Exhibitors and Artists Terms and Conditions.
4. Media accreditation is granted under the separate Media Cooperation Terms and Conditions.
5. Reproducing or selling copyright-protected products without appropriate rights or authorisation, or trading in illegal copies, is prohibited on the Event premises.
6. Views and opinions expressed by attendees, guests, exhibitors and programme contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the Organiser.

§9. Costume Rules

1. These rules apply to everyone attending the Event in costume (also referred to as cosplayers), regardless of whether they are entered in cosplay competitions, showcases or parades.
2. These rules aim to ensure the safety, respect, diversity and comfort of all Event attendees.
3. Every cosplayer must wear their attendee wristband visibly throughout their time on the Event premises.
4. Costumes must not cause disruption or obstruct walkways, emergency exits, exhibitor stands or programme stages.
5. The Organiser encourages interaction and photography in a spirit of mutual respect, openness and acceptance.
6. Costumes must be made from safe materials and must not endanger attendees, guests, contributors, exhibitors, Convention Staff, the Organiser, property or Event infrastructure.
7. Costumes must not contain:
   - sharp or metal components; weapons (firearms or bladed weapons) or other dangerous objects threatening life or health, particularly those referred to in Article 8(2) of the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events;
   - staining, powdery, toxic or strongly scented substances;
   - high-intensity pyrotechnic, smoke-producing or lighting effects (such as lasers or strobe lights);
   - obscene or pornographic costumes or costumes inciting hatred;
   - symbols, insignia or elements promoting Nazism, fascism, communism, other totalitarian systems or organisations and formations supporting them, or organisations or formations inciting hatred or violence.

An exception applies where such elements form part of a fictional costume and are not used for propaganda. The prohibition does not extend to symbols, insignia, uniforms or other elements of fictional organisations, factions, states or systems depicted in works of contemporary culture, including fictional authoritarian or totalitarian regimes, provided their use is part of a costume and does not promote real-world ideologies, organisations or systems covered by the prohibition.

8. Cosplaying public figures holding positions of political power (e.g. presidents, prime ministers, members of parliament, ministers, party activists or political movement leaders) and wearing any costume of an political campaigning or propaganda is prohibited. This covers both actual political figures and satirical or caricatured depictions of contemporary public figures. For this purpose, a contemporary public figure is anyone whose public activity occurred on or after 1 January 1900, subject to paragraph 9.
9. Fictional characters with political storylines, such as Padmé Amidala (Star Wars), Tyrion Lannister (Game of Thrones), Chancellor Palpatine, Mon Mothma, Emperor Cleon (Foundation) or Snow (The Hunger Games), are permitted provided they do not directly reference contemporary public figures.
10. Costumes depicting figures associated with churches and religious organisations operating in Poland, particularly those with a legally regulated status, including Jesus, Muhammad, the Pope, priests, bishops, rabbis, imams, nuns or monks, whether realistically or as parody, is prohibited, subject to paragraph 11.
11. Pop-culture reinterpretations of religious themes are permitted when the character comes from a fictional work and is presented in a pop-culture context, for example:
· God/Chuck Shurley, Castiel, Gabriel, Lucifer, Jack and other Supernatural characters;
· the Preacher (Jesse Custer) and Cassidy (Preacher);
· Sister Anne Marie, Lucifer and other Constantine/Hellblazer characters;
· Maggie Murdock/Grace and Father Paul Lantom (Daredevil);
· Mephisto (Marvel Comics/MCU);
· Loki and Puck disguised as the Pope and a bishop, Lucifer, Cain and Abel and other The Sandman characters;
· Aziraphale and Crowley (Good Omens);
· Lucifer Morningstar, Mazikeen, Michael and other angels (Lucifer);
· Metatron/Archangel Gabriel (Dogma);
· Sheogorath and Vivec (The Elder Scrolls);
· Archangel Michael and Archangel Gabriel (Legion, Dominion);
· depictions of God and Satan from games or comics (Spawn, Darksiders, Diablo IV);
· Hellboy;
· Jinu, Derpy, Sussie, Baby Saja, Abby Saja, Mystery Saja, Rumi and other KPop Demon Hunters characters;
· characters from The Nun.
Interpretations must be unmistakably fictional and rooted in pop culture. At the Event entrance, an attendee may be asked to identify the character they are cosplaying. Convention Staff will verify the character using online sources.
12. The Organiser may require an attendee to change, modify or remove a costume element if it is deemed to breach this section or offend attendees' religious feelings or beliefs.
13. In justified cases, the Organiser may allow a costume or props on a case-by-case basis that do not meet these requirements, particularly if intended for an exhibition or competition.

§10. Props, Replicas and Dangerous Items

1. The following may not be brought onto the Event premises: firearms, air guns, gas guns, airsoft guns and replicas capable of firing; sharp objects and bladed weapons (knives, swords, bayonets and spearheads), except safe props; pyrotechnic, explosive, flammable, foul-smelling or toxic materials; and devices emitting smoke, fire or intense light.
2. Anyone attempting to bring a genuine weapon (firearm or bladed weapon) into the Event will be excluded without the possibility of return. §1(10) and (11) apply accordingly.

3. Props made of safe materials (EVA foam, cardboard, wood, plastic, 3D-printed materials, resin, etc.) are permitted provided they have no sharp edges capable of causing cuts and do not emit loud bangs, light or gas.
4. Any prop may be inspected (for example, to check for sharp edges) by Convention Staff or security at the entrance or during the Event. All costumes, props and replicas brought in must be free of cutting edges.
5. If a prop is considered dangerous, the attendee may be required to remove it from the Event premises. Refusal to follow Convention Staff or security instructions may result in denied entry or removal.
6. Props must be stored safely and must not be left unattended.
7. The attendee is fully liable for damage arising from use of their costume or props.
8. At an attendee's request, props, replicas and other items that do not comply with these Terms and Conditions or applicable law may be left with Convention Staff for safekeeping and collected upon departure, provided such storage is lawful and complies with separately established deposit rules (for example, the prohibition on storing firearms or pyrotechnic materials).
9. The Organiser is not responsible for items left in storage.

§11. Photography and Privacy

1. Due to the public nature of the Event, the Organiser, accredited media and Event partners may document it through photographs and audio or video recordings. An attendee's image may be recorded and disseminated in the circumstances and under the conditions prescribed by applicable law, particularly Article 81 of the Polish Act on Copyright and Related Rights.
2. Every attendee has the right to refuse to be photographed or filmed by private individuals.
3. Persons taking photographs or filming must respect privacy and obtain consent before publishing material depicting an identifiable individual.
4. Photography and filming are permitted for private purposes only, subject to paragraph 1 and §13(8).
5. Attendees may photograph or record programme sessions only to the extent authorised by the Organiser or the host of the relevant activity.
6. The Organiser may impose a complete ban on photography or recording of specified programme sessions.
7. Prior consent from the Organiser is required to distribute complete recordings of programme sessions, particularly panels, performances, concerts and shows, for commercial or marketing purposes.

§12. Organiser's Liability

1. The Organiser is not liable for incidents resulting from attendees' failure to comply with these Terms and Conditions.
2. The Organiser is not liable for infringements of personal rights, including through the publication of a person's likeness or content created by third parties, including other attendees.
3. The Organiser is not responsible for minors left unsupervised contrary to these Terms and Conditions, or for minors' journeys to or from the Event.
4. The Organiser is not liable for damage caused by third parties' acts or omissions or by attendees' fault unless liability arises under applicable law. Persons responsible for damage bear liability, including financial liability. In the case of minors, parents or legal guardians bear legal and financial responsibility.
5. The Organiser is not liable for damage suffered by an attendee caused by third parties, the attendee's own fault or equipment forming part of stands operated by external companies working with the Organiser at the Event.

6. The Organiser is not responsible for property left unattended at the Event. The Organiser is also not liable for damage to attendees' property caused by force majeure (such as fire, explosions, lightning strikes, severe storms or flooding), the attendee's own actions or omissions, or third parties.
7. The Organiser reserves the right to cancel the Event due to circumstances beyond its control, including force majeure, decisions by public authorities, major technical failures at the Event venue or natural disasters. In such cases, attendees are entitled to a refund of their admission ticket price in accordance with §2(15).
8. The Organiser is required to report any identified violations of the law to the relevant authorities.

§13. Processing of Personal Data and Likeness

1. The Organiser is the controller of attendees' personal data.
2. For all matters relating to the Organiser's processing of personal data, contact rodo@fantasymagiccon.pl or write to the Organiser at Aleje Jerozolimskie 123A, 18th floor, 02-017 Warsaw.
3. Personal data are processed for the purposes of organising the Event and handling ticket sales, registration and attendee communications, and promoting the Event (in the case of photographs and recordings).
4. Data are processed in accordance with applicable law, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
5. By attending the Event, attendees consent to the Organiser and Event Partners processing their image as captured in digital photographs and audio or video recordings made during the Event, without a time limit, including for promotional and marketing purposes.
6. Attendees may be photographed or recorded as part of a public event. The Organiser may use these images and recordings for documentation and promotion in accordance with Article 81(2)(2) of the Polish Act on Copyright and Related Rights and the GDPR.
7. An attendee may withdraw the consent referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6 at any time by sending a written withdrawal to the address specified in paragraph 2.
8. To improve the organisation of future events that the Organiser intends to organise or co-organise, improve social-media reach and build recognition of the "Fantasy Magic Con" brand, and for other purposes necessary to the Organiser, each attendee may be asked to provide their age, occupation and town or city of origin and to answer questions concerning the Event programme and organisation, including expectations for the next edition. Such data will be processed solely for the organisational and statistical purposes indicated above and will not be disclosed to third parties.
9. The personal data processing notice constitutes Appendix 4.

§14. Final Provisions

1. These Terms and Conditions apply to all Event attendees.
2. The Organiser reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions, particularly where necessary for organisational or safety reasons, changes in applicable law or requirements of competent authorities. The current version will be published on the Event website. If material changes affecting the fundamental conditions of attendance are introduced, the attendee may cancel their attendance and obtain a ticket refund under §2(15).
3. Matters not governed by these Terms and Conditions are subject to Polish law.
4. All enquiries and reports should be directed to the Organiser via the contact form or email addresses in the Contact section of the Event website (https://fantasymagiccon.pl/kontakt/).
